

ENGAGING THE INDIAN DIASPORA

Rup Narayan Das

The increasing attention and focus to study the problems and potential of the expatriate population by the home countries can be attributed to a number of factors, the most important being the irreversible and unstoppable process of globalization, breaking the physical and emotional barriers of nation states. Now the world is witnessing not only the free movement of goods and services, but also the movement of people and ideas. Although migration is not entirely a new phenomenon, integration of world economy has also brought to the fore the socio, economic and political issues having a bearing on migration and reverse migration. While it is essential to address these issues carefully, it is equally important to harness the prowess and potential of the expatriate population as a strategic asset in the economic, social and educational development of the home country.

Yet another important aspect of the potential pertains to their increasing importance as what is called 'non-state actors' and their role and clout in influencing State and Government policies of the countries of their adoption. As diaspora are mainly non-state actors, they have to be viewed not only as minorities in the host countries, but also as important entities vis-à-vis their home countries. A telling illustration of this is the impact and influence of the Indian community in the USA in facilitating the passage of the Indo-US nuclear deal even if the impact is miniscule.

Policy and Attitude of India

It is worthwhile to recall that it was Mahatma Gandhi, who espoused the cause of Indian diaspora in an organized manner for the first time. Gandhi started his experiment of Satyagraha in South Africa to highlight the injustice and unfair treatment meted out to the migrant Indians there. He fought for their rights, dignity and self-esteem. Gandhi was concerned not only with the problems of the South African Indians but with the lot of the Indians all over world. During his prolonged sojourn in South Africa, he made two trips back to India during which he wrote the 'Green Pamphlet' and addressed the Indian National Congress, the Chamber of Commerce and other organisations to rally support for their Indian countrymen, especially in South Africa. Gandhi's persistent campaign had sensitized the travails of the Indian Community to the Colonial authorities in India and the United Kingdom. Recognizing the contributions of the Indian diaspora Pravasi Bharatiya Divas is declared on 9 January, the date on which Mahatma Gandhi returned to India from South Africa in 1915. Now the Pravasi Bharatiya Divas is celebrated once in every two years.

The post-Independent era in India witnessed the exodus of qualified professionals to foreign countries, particularly the USA, Canada and the United Kingdom, Australia etc. resulting, in the phenomenon called the 'brain drain' and there was no major initiative towards the diaspora whether Persons of Indian Origin (PIOs) or Non-Resident Indians (NRIs). However, with the economic reforms and liberalization which India initiated during 1990's, the Government also started a proactive policy towards expatriate population abroad, targeting the Non-Resident Indians with the goal to involve and associate them in the process of

TO ACCOMPLISH YOUR CAREER GOAL YOU NEED CLEAR VISION ON ONE

Vijay Prakash Srivastava

In life some choices are made for us and some choices are made by us. For example we can't decide which family will we take birth in or whether we would be born in a village or city. In the early age most of the decisions regarding our schooling etc. are taken by our parents or guardians. As we grow up we have our own thoughts, ideas and perceptions which of course are influenced by our surroundings, exposure and experiences. We start thinking of our short, medium and long term future. One thing which concerns us most is our career. Not only we, our parents, family members and other well-wishers also are concerned about our studies and career.

It is said that change is the law of nature, so if things are changing we shouldn't be surprised. But the kind of changes that are happening and the pace at which the changes are taking place is indeed unprecedented. The changes have come with fair share of opportunities and challenges. The age we're living in is full of opportunities. Which opportunities we look at and how we navigate to those opportunities is for us to decide. There may be problems and hardships but what we achieve shall be determined by our honesty to the purpose and how hard we work for this purpose.

All of us want a 'good' career. This good is somewhat subjective as everyone may have a different preference. But it's important to decide what is good for us and then work to achieve this goal. The world of careers has changed and expanded in a big way. Clarity about our career goal shall always help us to plan and strategize better. You might have come across the famous quote of Lewis Carroll – 'If you don't know where you are going, any road will get you there'. The idea here is that we should know our destination and then take the path that will take us to this destination.

After choosing a career goal one can make focused and planned preparation. Questions are often raised as to what is the right time or stage to decide a career goal. There is no fixed answer to that. However, it shouldn't be at a stage too early. We hear many students in class 6

PM Shri Narendra Modi's Mann Ki Baat

26th December 2021

Highlights

- A new variant of Corona has already knocked at the door. Our experience of the last two years is that our own effort as a citizen is very important to defeat this global pandemic. Our scientists are continuously studying this new Omicron variant. They are getting new data every day, their suggestions are being worked upon. In such a situation, self-awareness, self-discipline is in itself the country's strength in fighting against this variant of Corona. It is this very collective strength of ours that will defeat Corona; with this very sense of responsibility we have to enter into 2022.
- Group Captain Varun Singh of the Indian Air Force was flying the helicopter that fell prey to a mishap this month in Tamil Nadu. In that accident, we lost the country's first CDS, General Bipin Rawat and his wife along with many brave hearts. Group Captain Varun Singh also fought death bravely for many days, but then he also left us. He was given Shaurya Chakra in August just this year. After this honor, he had written a letter to the principal of his school. In his letter, Varun Singh ji did not boast of his valour; instead he referred to his failures. He talked about how he converted his shortcomings into abilities. At one place in this letter he has written – "It is ok to be mediocre. Not everyone will excel at school and not everyone will be able to score in the 90s. If you do, it is an amazing achievement and must be applauded. However, if you don't, do not think that you are meant to be mediocre. You may be mediocre in school but it is by no means a measure of things to come in life. Find your calling - it could be art, music, graphic design, literature, etc. Whatever you work towards, be dedicated, do your best. Never go to bed thinking, I could have put-in more efforts." He has inspired the whole country. Even though his letter talks only to the students, he has given a message to our entire society.
- This year also I am planning to address the students before the exams. The registration for this program is also going to start 28th December 2021 onwards on Mygov.in to 20th January 2022. For this, online competition will also be organized for students, teachers, and parents of class 9 to 12. I would like you all to take part in this. Together we will brainstorm on many aspects related to examinations, career, success and student life.
- Nilesh ji, a resident of Lucknow, has showered praises on a unique Drone Show in Lucknow. In the Drone Show, different aspects of the Indian freedom struggle were brought to life. Be it the 'Chauri Chaura Andolan,' the 'Kakori Train' incident, or Netaji Subhash's indomitable courage and valor, this Drone Show won everyone's hearts. Azadi Ka opportunity to live the memories of the freedom struggle; gives us an opportunity to experience them. Let us continue to be inspired by the great personalities of the freedom struggle, continue to further strengthen our efforts for the country.

● India is endowed with many extraordinary talents, whose work inspires others to do something. One such person is Dr. Kurela Vithalacharyaji from Telangana. 84 years old Vithalacharyaji exemplifies the fact that when it comes to fulfilling your dreams, age does not matter at all. Right from childhood Vithalacharyaji had a wish to open a library. The country was a slave then, circumstances were such that his childhood dream remained just a dream. Over time Vithalacharyaji, became a lecturer, deeply studied the Telugu language and also created many works in the same. 6.7 years ago, he started a library with his own books. He put his life's earnings into this. Gradually, people started joining and contributing to it. In this library at Ramannapet Division in Yadadri-Bhuvanagiri District, there are nearly 2 lakh books. Today he feels very happy to see that a large number of students are getting its benefits. Inspired by his efforts, people of many other villages have started setting up libraries.

● In Pune there is a centre named Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute. This Institute has started an online course to acquaint the people of other countries with the importance of Mahabharata. When the Institute started a course with regard to this, it received tremendous response. I am discussing this grand initiative so that people become aware of how the various aspects of our traditions are being presented in a modern manner. Innovative methods are also being adopted to ensure its benefits reach people based across seven seas.

● People from different countries are not only curious to know about our culture but are also helping to spread it. One such person is Serbian Scholar Dr. Momir Nikich. He has compiled a bilingual Sanskrit-Serbian Dictionary. More than 70 thousand Sanskrit words included in this dictionary have been translated into Serbian language. You would be delighted to know that Dr. Nikich has learned Sanskrit language at the age of 70. He tells that he got his inspiration from reading the articles of example is that of 93 (Ninety-three) year old Professor J. Gendeharam of Mongolia. In the last 4 decades, he has translated about 40 ancient texts, epics and compositions of India into Mongolian language.

● Many people are working with this kind of passion in our country too. I also got to know about the efforts of Sagar Mule ji of Goa, who is involved in saving centuries-old 'Kaavi' painting from extinction. 'Kaavi' form of painting covers the ancient history of India in itself. During the Portuguese rule in Goa, the people who migrated from there introduced the people of other states to this wonderful painting form. With the passage of time this painting was on the verge of extinction. But Sagar Mule ji has infused a new lease of life to this art.

● The people of Arunachal Pradesh have been running a unique campaign for a year and have named it "Arunachal Pradesh Airgun Surrender Campaign". In this campaign people are voluntarily surrendering their airguns – Do you know why? So that indiscriminate hunting of birds can be stopped. Arunachal Pradesh is home to more than 500 species of birds. These include some indigenous species, which are not found anywhere else in the world. But gradually, now the number of birds in the forests has started declining. This airgun surrender campaign is going on now to rectify this very situation. So far, the people of Arunachal have voluntarily surrendered more than 1600 airguns. I commend and congratulate the people of Arunachal for this.

● More than 30 thousand NCC cadets participated in Puneet Sagar campaign. These cadets cleaned the beaches, removed plastic waste from there and collected it for recycling. Our beaches, our mountains are worth visiting only when there is cleanliness at the place. Many people dream of going to a particular place all their lives... but when they go there, knowingly or unknowingly, they leave behind waste there. It is the responsibility of every countryman that the places which give us so much joy, should not be dirtied by us.

● I have come to know about a start-up named Saaf Water which has been started by some youth. With the help of Artificial Intelligence and Internet of Things, it will give information related to the purity and quality of water in their area to people. This is just the next the importance of this start-up for the clean and healthy future of the people, it has also received a Global Award.

● In the effort 'Ek Qadam Swachhata ki Ore,' be it the institutions or the government, everyone has an important role. Special campaigns are being run in ministries and departments to remove the old and pending material. When this cleanliness drive was started in the Department of Post, the junkyard there became completely empty. Now this junkyard has been turned into a courtyard and cafeteria. Another junkyard has been converted into a parking space for two wheelers. Similarly, the Ministry of Environment converted its vacant junkyard into a wellness centre. The Ministry of Urban Affairs has even installed a Swachh ATM too. Its purpose is that people deposit garbage and take cash in return. Departments under the Civil Aviation Ministry have started making organic compost from dry leaves falling from trees and organic waste. The department is also working to make stationery from waste paper.

● Like every time, after a month, we will meet again, but, in 2022. Every new beginning also brings an opportunity to recognize your potential. We have to learn so much, innovate anew, achieve new goals, therefore, we will have to persevere without wasting even a moment. We have to take the country to new heights of development, so we have to make full use of every resource of ours. In a way, this is also the mantra of Atma Nirbhar Bharat that is self-reliant India, because, when we use our resources properly, we will not let them go waste, only then will we recognize the power of local, only then will the country be self-reliant. So, let us reiterate our resolve to think big, dream big, and work hard to make them come true.

Youth: The Nation-builders of Today

Every year since 1985, the Government of India observes 12th January, the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda as National Youth Day. To quote from the Government of India's communication, "it was felt that the philosophy of Swamiji and the ideals for which he lived and worked could be a great source of inspiration for the Indian Youth."

Swami Vivekananda's message was simple yet powerful. He conveyed his ideas directly to the people, especially to the youth. His message broke through the shackles of caste and creed and spoke of a language of universal brotherhood. What he said captures the great importance of his ideas and ideals among the youth in our country today. He personified the eternal energy of the youth and their restless quest for truth.

India is one of the youngest countries and it is India's youth who are the biggest ambassadors of the country's talent and potential. Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi has always encouraged the youth of the nation to follow Swami Vivekananda's leadership advice. At the valedictory function of the 2021 National Youth Parliament Festival, the Prime Minister stressed that it was Swami Vivekananda who recognised confident, clear-hearted, fearless and courageous youth as the foundation of the nation. The Prime Minister presented the mantras of Swami Vivekananda for youth-for physical fitness 'Muscles of Iron and Nerves of Steel'; for personality development 'Believe in Yourself'; and for leadership and teamwork 'Believe in All'.

Taking forward Swami's contribution in developing individuals and institutions, the government has taken several initiatives to harness the Yuva Shakti of our country. A few are listed below:

National Youth Parliament Festival

The objective of National Youth Parliament Festival is to hear the voice of youth between 18 and less than 25 years of age, who will join various careers in coming years, including public services. National Youth Parliament Festival (NYPF) is based on the idea given by the Prime Minister in his Mann Ki Baat Address on 31st December 2017. Taking inspiration from the idea of the Prime Minister, the first NYPF 2019 was organised from 12 January to 27 February 2019 at District, State & National level with the theme "Be the Voice of New India and Find solutions and Contribute to Policy".

Target Olympic Podium Scheme (TOPS)

In order to improve India's performance at Olympics and Paralympics, the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports (MYAS) started the Target Olympic Podium Scheme (TOPS) in September 2014. It is a flagship program of the Ministry which is an attempt to provide assistance to India's top athletes and add a premium to the preparations so that they can win medals in the Olympics. The idea of the Scheme is to also keep an eye on the future and fund a Developmental Group of Athletes who are medal prospects for the Olympic Games in Paris in 2024 and Los Angeles Games in 2028. Supports under TOPS include foreign training, international competition, equipment and coaching camp.

National Education Policy

The National Education Policy 2020 provides flexible and innovative learning formats to the students. The policy aims to create better individuals by prioritizing aspirations, skills, understanding and choice of the youth. "We are trying to create an ecosystem in the country, the absence of which often compels the youth to look towards foreign shores", the Prime Minister said. He underlined better education and entrepreneurial opportunities being made available to the youth of the country.

National Youth Festival

Organised since 1995, by the Department of Youth Affairs. The objective is to bring youth of the country together to showcase their talents and provide them an arena, by creating a mini-India, where youth interact in formal and informal settings and exchange their social and cultural uniqueness. It is also to promote national integration, spirit of communal harmony, brotherhood, courage and adventure. The basic aim is to propagate the spirit, essence and concept of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat with the partnership of youth and the masses of India. The National Youth Festival is celebrated every year from 12th to 16th January.

EN EXPLAINS

Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY)

The scheme was launched in 2015 to encourage and promote skill development in the country by providing free short duration skill training and incentivizing this by providing monetary rewards to youth for skill certification. The objective of this Skill Certification Scheme is to enable a large number of Indian youth to take up industry-relevant skill training that will help them in securing a better livelihood. The training is provided according to the National Skills Qualification Framework (NSQF) with Soft Skills, Entrepreneurship, Financial and Digital Literacy, as part of the curriculum. PMKVY envisages to encourage training in special areas and premises of Government bodies, corporates/industry bodies and training in special job roles not defined under the available Qualification Packs (QPs)/ National Occupational Standards (NOSs).

Cultural Heritage Youth Leadership Programme (CHYLP)

The scheme was envisaged to enrich the awareness of Indian culture and heritage amongst the youth in order to promote, understand and develop fondness for India's rich cultural heritage, with a view to develop appropriate leadership qualities amongst youth. The focus of the programme was to be on less privileged children residing in backward areas by interacting with them in vernacular languages for their better understanding. Centre for Cultural Resources and Training (CCRT), an autonomous organization working under the purview of the Ministry of Culture, organizes workshops for the scheme. This scheme will form the basis for encouraging leadership qualities among the youth as propagators of cultural awareness.

Fit India Movement

Fit India Movement was launched in 2019 by the Honourable Prime Minister with a view to make fitness an integral part of our daily lives. The mission of the Movement is to bring about behavioural changes and move towards a more physically active lifestyle. Towards achieving this mission, Fit India proposes to undertake various initiatives and conduct events to promote fitness as easy, fun and free; spread awareness on fitness and various physical activities that promote fitness through focused campaigns; encourage indigenous sports; make fitness reach every school, college/university, panchayat/ village; create a platform for citizens of India to share information, drive awareness and encourage sharing of personal fitness stories.

YUVA- Prime Minister's Scheme for Mentoring Young Authors

YUVA is an Author Mentorship programme launched in May 2021 to train young and budding authors (below 30 years of age) in order to promote reading, writing and book culture in the country, and project India and Indian writings globally. YUVA is a part of India@75 Project (Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav) to bring to the fore the perspectives of the young generation of writers on themes like Unsung Heroes, Freedom Fighters, Unknown and Forgotten Places and their role in National Movement, and other related themes in an innovative and creative manner. This scheme will thus help to develop a stream of writers who can write on a spectrum of subjects to promote Indian heritage, culture and knowledge system. The books prepared under this scheme will be published by National Book Trust, India; and will also be translated into other Indian languages ensuring the exchange of culture and literature. YUVA will go a long way in laying the foundation of the future leaders of the creative world.

ENGAGING THE INDIAN DIASPORA

national development. It was against this backdrop that, the Ministry of Home Affairs launched the People of Indian Origin (PIO) Card in March 1999. The PIO Card Scheme was basically aimed to reinforce the emotional bonds of Indians who have made other countries their home, but who had a yearning to renew their ties with the land of their origin.

High Level Committee on Indian Diaspora

The government took a major initiative to address issues pertaining to the diaspora when it constituted a High level Committee on Indian Diaspora in August 2000 under the Chairmanship of late Dr. L.M. Singhvi, a distinguished member of Rajya Sabha and former Indian High Commissioner to the United Kingdom.

The creation of the Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs (MOIA) in May 2004 was an assertion that the welfare of the Overseas Indians needs mainstream attention. The Ministry was earlier called the Ministry of Non-Resident Indian Affairs which was renamed as the Ministry of Overseas Indians Affairs since September 2004. The emigration division of the Ministry of Labour and Employment was attached to the new Ministry in December 2004. The NRI division of the Ministry of External Affairs provided support to the Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs and now functions as the Diaspora Division in the Ministry of External Affairs.

Dual Citizenship

The Committee further recommended that dual citizenship should be permitted within the ambit of Citizenship Act, 1955. It was against this background that the Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 2003 was introduced in the Rajya Sabha in December 2003. In 2004, by an amendment to the Citizenship Act, the facility of Overseas Citizenship of India (OCI) was made available to PIOs in 16 specified countries. An Overseas Citizen of India is not entitled to the right conferred on a citizen of India and will not have the right to equality of opportunity in matters of public employment and will not be a member of Parliament or of a State legislature. An Overseas Citizen of India is also not entitled in agricultural land or plantation. Nevertheless it grants a life-long citizenship status and is a kind of psychological incentive for people to relate themselves with India.

Voting Rights

The issue of granting voting rights to the Non-Resident Indians particularly from the Gulf region had engaged the attention of Parliament, the media and the judiciary for quite some time. It was against this background that with the objective of giving voting rights to the Non-Resident Indians, the Representation of the People (Amendment) Bill, 2006 was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on 17 February, 2006. The Government was of the view that conferring such rights would enable them to participate in the democratic process of elections in the country and would also boost their involvement in the nation building. Accordingly, having considered all aspects of their demand, the government proposed to make provision through legislation to enable Indian citizens, absenting from their place of ordinary residence in India owing to their employment, education or otherwise outside India, to get their names registered in the electoral rolls of the concerned constituency of their place of ordinary residence in India and cast their votes in elections to the Lok Sabha and to the State Legislatures in case they happen to be in their constituency at the time of polls.

The Bill was passed by both the Houses of Parliament and assented to by the President. Now the Non-Resident Indians have started voting in elections in India. However, they are required to be present in the country at the time of voting. There is, however, a demand for postal voting, a privilege enjoyed by defence personnel and diplomats. Realizing the seriousness of the issue the Supreme Court on a judgment on a petition refrained from allowing NRIs to vote through postal ballot or Internet for the 2014 Lok Sabha elections saying this might open a "Pandora's box" while the electoral process was on.

Foreign Remittance by Indian Diaspora

Foreign remittance sent by the expatriate skilled and semi-skilled workers in the Gulf and elsewhere in the world has been a steady source of foreign exchange earnings for India. According to the World Bank, India received $83 billion from abroad in 2020, despite the pandemic that devastated world economy. In comparison, China received $59.5 billion in remittances in 2020, as against $68.3 billion the previous year.

Yet another important aspect of the inflow of money from the Non-Resident Indians is that the NRIs have emerged as the largest overseas lender to India surpassing traditional sources such as multilateral and bilateral foreign agencies. Throughout the 1990s and early part of this millennium, multilateral organisations such as the World Bank agencies formed a major chunk of India's outstanding external debt. Since then, however, NRI deposits in India have grown manifold and it now contributes significantly to easing of country's external debt.

Over the last few years, India has been taking a number of initiatives to attract Indian research scientists studying abroad to relocate them in premier scientific and technological institutions. A flagship scheme in this regard is the Ramalingaswami Re-entry Fellowship offered by the Department of Biotechnology under the Ministry of Science & Technology, Government of India. The scheme is conceptualized with the aim of attracting highly skilled researchers (Indian nationals) working overseas in various cutting edge disciplines of biotechnology such as agriculture, health sciences, bio-engineering, energy, environment, bioinformatics and other related areas. This is a senior fellowship programme, and awardees are considered to be equivalent to the level of Scientists-D. They are entitled to take up teaching and research assignments and supervising doctoral and MS students. A large number of such scientists are absorbed in the institutes where they do their research. The government is now trying to increase both the emoluments and research grants under the fellowships so as to become more attractive. The Pravasi Bharatiya Samman award is the highest honour conferred on Non-

Resident Indians, Persons of Indian Origin; or an organization or institution run by NRI or PIO which have made notable contributions for engaging the diaspora. The Government of India has always evacuated the Indian Diaspora in distress situations abroad including during the COVID-19 period. The Indian missions abroad also comes to the rescue of Indians in distress conditions. The former External Affairs Minister late Smt. Sushma Swaraj earned laurels from trapped Indian diaspora in distress through Twitter.

India has moved a long way from benign neglect to proactive engagement with regard to its diaspora. The diaspora in return have also responded mindfully. There was a time when Indians migrated abroad for greener pasture and now there is a process of reverse migration and yearning on their part to engage with the mother country to pay back their debt of gratitude.

Smart Cities Mission

Sameera Saurabh

Smart Cities Mission was launched by the Hon'ble Prime Minister on 25 June 2015 with the objective to promote cities which provide core infrastructure, clean and sustainable environment and give a decent quality of life to their citizens through the application of 'smart solutions.' The Mission focuses on sustainable and inclusive development by creation of replicable models (through Area Based Development and Pan city development approaches) which act as lighthouses to other aspiring cities.

As part of Smart City Plans, 100 Smart Cities have proposed to execute a total of 5,151 projects worth Rs. 2,05,018 crores in 5 years from their respective dates of selection. Special Purpose Vehicles (SPVs) established in 100 Smart Cities support implementation of Smart City Projects. 100 cities were selected to be developed as Smart Cities through a two-stage National competition.

The Mission is operated as a Centrally Sponsored Scheme. Central Government will give financial support to the extent of Rs. 48,000 crores over 5 years i.e., on an average Rs. 100 crore per city per year. An equal amount on a matching basis is to be provided by the State/ULB. Additional resources are to be raised through convergence, from ULBs' own funds, grants under Finance Commission, innovative finance mechanisms such as Municipal Bonds, other government programs and borrowings. Emphasis has been given on the participation of private sector through Public Private Partnerships (PPP). Citizens' aspirations were captured in the Smart City Proposals (SCPs) prepared by the selected cities. Aggregated at the national level, these proposals contained more than 5,000 projects worth over Rs. 2,00,000 crores, of which around 45 percent are to be funded through Mission grants, 21 percent through convergence, 21 percent through PPP and rest from other sources. Mission has a two-pronged strategy consisting of Pan-City and Area-Based development projects.

Smart Cities address issues across three broad pillars: Liveability, Economic-ability and Sustainability. Major issues highlighted by citizens during the comprehensive exercise of citizen engagement were urban mobility, affordable housing, water and used-water management, sanitation, solid waste management, safety, security, health, education, and energy security. These issues relate to liveability- which is the first pillar. The power of cities to drive economic growth has been well-researched and accepted. Need for better investment climate, jobs as per talent, investments, innovation, reduced levels of unemployment are other aspirations expressed by citizens. These together represent the economic-ability pillar. Climate change, conservation of natural development concerns one and all. Sustainable development is a state of dynamic equilibrium wherein everyday actions on technology, infrastructure, processes, investments are taken in a manner which balances both present and future concerns of society. Smart Cities promote sustainability, the third pillar.

Current Implementation Status

Overall progress of the Mission as on 10 December 2021 shows great momentum in

SCM Activities During AKAM
To commemorate the 75th year of India's Independence being celebrated as Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (AKAM), during the week beginning 27th September till 3rd October 2021, GoI planned numerous events across States and cities including 100 smart cities.

Under the Smart Cities Mission, following three activities were taken up in 100 Smart Cities as part of AKAM celebrations:

• 22+Citiesx75 Hours Placemaking Marathon - The Smart Cities Mission encouraged cities to reimagine at least one public space in their city and transform it within 75 hours. 32 cities participated hosting public events and programming the transformed spaces in a way that celebrates our azadi, while also celebrating our cities. 22+Cities, transformed 50+public spaces in 75 hours. This equaled to about 1 lakh square meters of public spaces in cities. The projects focused on building cities for the people and with the people. To make cities safer for walking & cycling. To make neighbourhood parks and public amenities like anganwadis and health centers more stimulating for young children to aid their physical and cognitive development. To cater to the needs of caregivers - especially pregnant and lactating mothers, and to ensure we have access to hygienic food in public spaces. These were done as light quick and cheap trials. So that these ideas can be tested and improved upon before more permanent and cost-intensive projects are undertaken at scale. The details of the initiative can be accessed from <https://smartnet.niua.org/placemaking-marathon>

• Freedom Walk/Run/Cycling Campaign - Through this campaign, over 220 events encouraging citizens to walk, cycle or run were held across the 100 participating cities between 1st to 3rd October 2021. There were 40 events held to empower women to walk & cycle, 25 events to identify junior walk & bicycle champions, 115 events to bring more pedestrians and cyclists on the street and 15 temporary interventions were tested to make walking and cycling safe and fun.

• Freedom through Technology- Under Freedom through Technology, the Smart Cities Mission encouraged the cities to host an event in their ICCC / ICT centers between 27th Sept to 3rd October 2021 showcasing successful technological ICT interventions to the citizens focusing on how cities are achieving technology enabled freedom. 75 cities together engaged more than 7500 citizens showcasing their ICCC capabilities with 200+ use cases which were well received by citizens and other city stakeholders. The events focused on the readiness of the cities to mitigate challenges across nine themes viz. Freedom from Crime, Freedom from Traffic, Freedom from Waste, Freedom from Water-scarcity, Freedom from Queues, Freedom from Green House Gases (GHGs), Freedom from Pollution, Freedom from Disease and Freedom from Inefficiency. TO ACCOMPLISH YOUR CAREER GOAL ...

or 7 saying that they want to become an IAS officer or an astronaut etc. To take a particular direction in the matter of career, one needs understanding of oneself as well as certain amount of maturity which may not be there at such a young age. Also in many cases very early decision about a career choice is mostly taken on the basis of glamour attached to a career and not on the basis of in depth knowledge about that particular career. The earliest time to give a serious thought to one's future career can be said to when the student is enrolled in Senior Secondary level. However even at Higher Secondary level it's not late. Also, any decision with regard to a career goal has to be taken with the understanding of what the career entails and how it will shape your life and future.

The Changing Scenario

When we became independent our economy in a way was in nascent stage. Also the country followed a model which was more oriented towards a closed than an open economy. We continued with this system for about four decades till we moved to an era of liberalization which can be considered a watershed in the economic history of India. Many areas of business and industry in which only government used to operate were opened for private enterprises. Foreign Direct Investment norms were eased, licensing and permit policies were relaxed and thus came a time when private sector began to spread its wings in the areas like aviation, banking, steel, tourism, education, healthcare etc. creating new employment opportunities. Side by side the Information, Communication and Technology (ICT) revolution was taking place in which India actively participated. So many new jobs came up in the country itself, we also became an outsourcing hub for global companies and many of our young people were offered jobs overseas in companies working in the above areas.

Even though our country doesn't have as many jobs as would be needed to achieve full employment, young people now stand a better chance to take up a career of their choice. It is now easier to gather information about any career and to prepare for a particular career. Resources are available in abundance.

Approaches to Decide a Career Goal

People have different preferences which reflects in their choice of career and also in other aspects of their lives. In no case a particular career should be identified for its glamour or any superficial aspect. We should also consider difficulties

Whatever we decide, we need to be realistic so that we don't have to regret at a later stage.

Also a career doesn't necessarily mean being employee of some company or organization. A full-fledged time career can also be made in music, photography, sports etc. Here one also has the option to pursue these as hobbies with some other career. Starting your own venture is also a career path.

There are two distinct approaches through which we may decide which route we want to take. One can look at various options available and then try to reach a conclusion on which one is good for her or him. There is no dearth of options which can include engineering, medical, architecture, banking, management etc. The other approach is to understand your interests and choose a field which matches this interest.

To decide your career goal it'll be better if you adopt step by step process. We all have talent and potential. Behavioural scientists say that a career which gives you an opportunity to use this talent and makes you realize your potential is going to be more fulfilling and satisfying. Let's not forget that out of 24 hours of a day cycle, a major portion will be spent on work. If this time is not enjoyable, it may be a reason for dissatisfaction and may lead to frustration which is not good for our physical or mental health. Look around and you can see people who have everything but they are not happy with their work life or don't like their work. So it's advisable to be careful in our choices.

The scientific or say prudential exercise for setting career goals should begin with self-analysis followed by self-assessment. Under self-analysis you need to identify your natural talents and whether these can be useful in a particular career. One can also look at the talents which one would like to acquire to get close to a career of interest. You have to ask questions like -what keeps me happy, which work I'll enjoy most etc. Under assessment you have to understand your personality and how your career goals can be matched with it. Some aspects of our personality can be counted as our strengths. We need to work on these strengths to our advantage. When it comes to weaknesses, we've to make sure that we get rid of these. This can't be done in a single day but by adopting incremental improvement you may bring big changes.

If you're clear about your interests and want a career associated with your interest then you've come one step ahead. You may create a list of associated with interest and then evaluate each of these before taking a decision. For example those interested in understanding human behavior may go for psychology or behavioural science. Willingness to learn the equations of supply and demand, income distribution etc. should take you to economics. If interested in computers, courses like Bachelor/Master of Computer Applications, B.E./B.Tech in Computer engineering, B.Sc./M.Sc. in Computer Science can be pursued. If you're fascinated by Science, you will have to further decide which branch of Science is closure to your heart and mind as plenty of choices like Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Biotechnology, Biochemistry, Nuclear Science, Earth Science etc. are available. Whether you want to become a generalist or choose some specialized or super specialized area is also a choice.

Explore and Discuss with Others

It is always better to discuss your ideas with well-wishers who may be your family members, relatives, teachers, friends or neighbours. The fear of disagreement shouldn't deter you to share your thoughts. While you discuss your career goals with others, you may be exposed to perspectives which never cropped in your mind. Open discussion may also help you to keep your biases away, if there are any. We don't need to copy others. Also try to find out someone from the line which you are willing to choose, to get some firsthand information about their work and work life. For example if you want to become a software engineer, a person already doing this job may provide you valuable inputs which will help you to in better decision making. Also explore inputs available in career guides, articles, interviews, blogs etc. There are videos posted on social media which discuss career options. Broader areas of careers are known to most of us, but exploring lesser known and underrated careers (like Bachelor of Design) may bring us closer to what we want to do.

Make Best Use of Resources

Many of us always keep thinking about our lack of resources and conclude that without these resources it's impossible to achieve our career goals. Let this be explained by an example. A student dreams of studying at IIT which is among most sought after destinations for many to get a degree in Engineering. However this student doesn't pursue this idea further thinking that it is impossible to qualify in IIT entrance examination without coaching which his or her family can't afford due to financial reasons. Perhaps this student doesn't know that nearly one third of the students admitted to IIT qualify without joining any coaching classes. At the same time there are thousands of students who even after spending a huge amount on coaching don't qualify. If you go through the profile of successful candidates in Civil Services Examination you'll find that many of them are from rural background who didn't get opportunity to study at prestigious colleges or universities. Their hard work, determination and making best use of the available resources led to their success. Late Dr APJ Abdul Kalam's quote that aspirations are greater than resources, holds much value here. A large number of people whom we consider successful and who are holding prestigious positions are from humble backgrounds and have gone through struggle to reach where they are today.

Of course higher studies have become costlier over the years, but still many of our established, prestigious universities charge modest fee. Those with limited financial resources may consider these.

Be Forward Looking

You'll also do good to remember that for most of you your first career is not going to be your last career. This is particularly true for those who will be working in private sector where switching jobs is much more common. There is no harm in looking for better opportunities, however here also one needs to tread cautiously to make sure that your move proves to be a good decision. Keep an eye over growth opportunities to make most of these.

Only a Degree is Not Sufficient

For a corporate career or a position in government there are prescribed qualifications but only a degree is not sufficient to get a nice role or position. That is why selection processes comprising of one or more of written test, group discussion, and interview are conducted. To achieve your career goal you have to clear all of these. Your preparation should be impeccable. To accomplish your career goal you should have clear understanding of the path to reach that goal.
